KIWANIS CLUB HEAR INTERESTING SPEECH

Dr. Philip of St. Joseph's College, Edmonton, was the speaker at the Kiwanis luncheon on Tuesday evening, and he gave a very interesting address on the subject of Juvenile Delinquency. He stated that approximately 30% of the delinquents would be normal had been given a fair chance in their youth. Delinquency is frequently inherited from parents, but not always. The delinquent boy is generally a healthy, sturdy, normal boy, able to stand a lot of hard work, but intellectually he is usually about two years behind a student in grade eight. The delinquents, unless properly cared for and counseled, frequently turn out to be clever sounders, robbers and embezzlers as an uncontrollable passion develops along these lines. Boys in good homes with good food and care often develop the wanderlust, and away they go, but after an escapee they come back for food and shelter. Many cases are from homes where they lack parental care and affection and lacking these essentials the boy drifts on his own accord. In the mental institutions, they can be appealed to, as they have a keen sense of right and wrong. The speaker then referred to the many ways in which the delinquent is looked after, such as the Juvenile Court where they are given lots of good advice, but the Judge is often misled by wonderful promises. Corporal punishment is needed when other means fail. The biggest help in controlling the boy is curtailing privileges. The staffs in the mental institutions that count for anything, have been specially trained for their duties, and are adapted for leadership.

The Carnival to be held here in July was briefly considered, and a committee comprising R. W. Manley, F. Abousaffy and R. M. Snyder was named to act with a committee representing the Elks.

S. Westvik, New Norway, is the Liberal Candidate for Camrose.

The above are the contestants in the Provincial Election in the Wetaskiwin Constituency. It will doubtless be a straight fight, as it is not likely a Conservative Candidate will be nominated.

AUTOCAR OF ELKS VISITED WETASKIWIN

On Sunday afternoon, May 18th, Exalted Ruler Jess Burkholder gathered together his herd of Elks and started down the Calgary trail, where in due course he met the Autocade of Elks that were journeying to Edmonton for the Alberta District Convention. The visitors, headed by Grand Exalted Ruler E. E. Hand of Vancouver and Grand Secretary Savage of Calgary, were first brought to the Elks' hall, where they were shown over the building. Grand Exalted Ruler Hand was loud in his exclamations of praise for the local lodge in the great efforts they had put forth to build such an everlasting monument to Elksdom. From the hall the Elks marched to the banquet room of the Elks' hall, where Brother Smith served supper. Here again Grand Exalted Ruler Hand was most impressed with the spacious hall and its appointments. After Exalted Ruler Burkholder had introduced the guests he called upon E. E. Hand and Sam Savage respectively, who gave brief talks. Following supper the Autocade again got on its way, many Wetaskiwin cars going as far as Leduc. The Wetaskiwin delegates to the convention were E. E. Sparks and George Long.

Turning to the finances of the Province, Mr. Duggan pointed out the excessive growth of the expenditure on income tax. In 1920 this amounted to $8,544,000, while the estimated expenditure for 1930 was $17,107,000. He showed that this was not good business, and pointed out that the cities and larger towns of Alberta are spending less money today than in 1920 and that unless this undue expenditure was stopped, the province was bound to face a very serious financial problem. In 1920 the government had 99 sources of revenue, while in 1929 they had 174 sources of revenue. The government was spending all this and was not giving relief in the form of taxes to the people.

Mr. Duggan stated that he had supported the wheat pool in the House and felt that the Government was justified in going to the rescue of the Pool, as he believed the failure of the Wheat Pool would have set the Province back at least five years. He felt, however, that so long as the government backed the Pool financially they should have representation on the Board.

The people of Alberta should fight against class legislation, and they should be cautious that no rapid development of the resources should take place without having proper representation in the House, of all classes. There could be no future for Alberta under class legislation. We must develop a Province and national consciousness, and as a people, see to it that we have equitable representation in the government of this land.

A representative gathering of Conservatives attended the convention in the I.O.O.F. hall on Friday evening, at which C. H. Russell, the President of the Wetaskiwin Provincial Conservative Association, presided. After a few introductory remarks, the election of officers took place, resulting as follows: Hon. President, D. M. Duggan; Hon. Vice-President, W. J. Loggie; President, N. A. MacEachern, 1st Vice-President, H. C. Cooke; 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. A. E. Wynne; Secretary-Treasurer, U.F.A. French; Executive: D. Irving, G. P. Root, F. B. Watson, F. Chiddy, R. R. Hawkins, Mrs. W. E. Bridgeman, Mrs. F. C. Chiddy, E. Switzer, R. H. Inglis, R. P. Roop, H. A. Dowler, L. F. Woods, R. W. Manley, C. O. Cunningham, C. T. Cooper, Sam Lucas, Ed. Johnson, Gervase, G. L. Gothard, E. D. O'Neill, J. W. Somers.

Strongly worded resolutions endorsing the policy of Mr. Duggan as well as the federal policy of the Conservatives were unanimously approved.

The selection of a candidate to contest the forthcoming election was considered at some length, many present giving their views on the matter, but it was decided to defer action at the present time and it was left with the executive to place a candidate in the field if anything arose before nomination day to justify such action.

D. M. Duggan, leader of the Conservative party in Alberta, was present and addressed the meeting at considerable length. At the outset, he expressed his regrets at the action of the meeting in not placing a candidate in the Wetaskiwin Constituency. He then stated he never had been an ardent supporter of party politics in Provincial affairs, and was strongly of the opinion that as the Conservatives could not vote for a local policy or support a U.F.A. candidate, an independent man should be nominated who would receive the Conservative vote.

Taking up the question of the natural resources, Mr. Duggan briefly traced the policies of the Conservative party in respect to the natural resources since the time the province was created until the present day. The party had consistently advocated Provincial ownership and control at all times, and he accentuated the necessity of having a representative government at the present time, in order that the acquisition of the resources should receive all round development, and not along only one line, to the exclusion of other branches of development.

Turning to the finances of the Province, Mr. Duggan pointed out the excessive growth of the expenditure on income tax. In 1920 this amounted to $8,544,000, while the estimated expenditure for 1930 was $17,107,000. The people of Alberta should fight against class legislation, and they should be cautious that no rapid development of the resources should take place without having proper representation in the House, of all classes. There could be no future for Alberta under class legislation. We must develop a Province and national consciousness, and as a people, see to it that we have equitable representation in the government of this land.

Mr. Duggan stated that he had supported the wheat pool in the House and felt that the Government was justified in going to the rescue of the Pool, as he believed the failure of the Wheat Pool would have set the Province back at least five years. He felt, however, that so long as the government backed the Pool financially they should have representation on the Board.

The people of Alberta should fight against class legislation, and they should be cautious that no rapid development of the resources should take place without having proper representation in the House, of all classes. There could be no future for Alberta under class legislation. We must develop a Province and national consciousness, and as a people, see to it that we have equitable representation in the government of this land.

VOTERS' LISTS FOR PROVINCIAL ELECTION

Section 16 of Chapter 34 of the Statutes of Alberta, 1924, with amendments of 1925, reads as follows:

three clauses:

"(a) Every person, whether male

date of the writ of the election;

"(b) Any person otherwise qualified, who is a resident of an electoral division and has been a resident in Alberta for at least twelve months immediately prior to the said date, but who has not been a resident of the electoral division for two months immediately prior to the said date, shall be entitled to have his or her name placed on the list of voters for the electoral division and polling subdivision of and with-dent for two continuous months

during the said period of twelve months. Such person shall not be provided.

"18. Each person shall be entitled to have his or her name placed on the list of voters for the polling subdivision where he or she has or had his or her address on the said list."

THE LAST MONTH
OF SCHOOL

The following valuable hints for mothers should be made note of as the pressure of examination time draws near. Failure to pass exams is often the result of poor health, a fatigued mind in a depleted body. Do not let the boys and girls burn the candle at both ends, or a nervous breakdown will be the result.

How to pass exams—Keep the child's energy up to par by special attention to his diet. Begin each day with a substantial breakfast of fruit, cereal, milk or cocoa, and toast, also the occasional egg.

Rest periods are important and of real value after the noon lunch and before the evening meal. A happy unworried mental attitude is essential when settling down to homework.
Cultivate confidence in the child's mind and courage to tackle his problems.

A quiet place to study and a peaceful sympathetic atmosphere at home will give the best environment. See that supper is a good meal of satisfying and lasting quality. Lastly, sleep long, with the windows open, going to bed early every night for the month of June.

In short, see that your child follows the teaching of the Junior Red Cross Health Rules if you would have him up to the mark.

quest from the Canadian Red Cross

A NOVEL SUGGESTION

A Lethbridge housewife, having received an urgent letter from a mail order house to avail herself of sundry of their bargains, takes the unique method of publishing a reply in the Lethbridge Herald. Her arguments are good and make a novel suggestion. She says:

"I would love to get some of your bargains, but if I did I couldn't pay my grocery bills. Then the grocer couldn't pay my husband for the law suit he won for him. And neither of these men could pay their taxes. The grocer says he has to carry people who haven't the ready cash and if he can't pay the taxes, then there can't be the local improvements.

"I begin to wonder if mail order houses shouldn't take a share in paying taxes where they do business. If I send you a large mail order I am not doing my business with the man who helps support my church, the man who helps keep his home and street looking nice, who contributes to concerts, who buys tickets that I sell in all of this or that. There are our local whist drives and bazaars and dances and games. I never see you there but I do see our local merchants. Don't you think your firm should at least buy tickets for dances and things, and contribute to the church from whose members you get the most business? Don't you think you should be asked to pay taxes in proportion to the business which you take from our town. How about it?"

SPITTING

In a very interesting report of a study made on tuberculosis covering a section of England, we find that the report closes with the following:—
"There is one reform and that by no means unimportant, which need not cost anything. If the filthy habit of spitting in public places could be ended by pressure of public opinion, a considerable source of infection
would disappear."

That a report which deals with the relationship of tuberculosis to housing, employment and education should close with such a definite statement as regards the dangers of spitting shows just how serious the matter is in the opinion of the writer.

Spitting is largely a habit. Not so many years ago, every man spat when he smoked. Why did he? Just because he had seen others do it and, therefore, it seemed to him to be associated with the smoke. The cuspider was part of the household furnishings. This has all changed, however; the smoker no longer spits, and the cuspidor in the home is becoming rare.

There are men and boys who seem to spit in order to have something to do. They stand on the corner and talk and spit. This is simply a bad habit.

There is no disagreement as to the habit's being an objectionable and a filthy one. There is, however, judging from what we see every day a lack of understanding that the habit is a very dangerous one, affecting other people.

When we consider that about one per cent of the population are suffering from active tuberculosis, we understand that it is a common habit, that it is bound to be many spitters who have tuberculosis.

Spitting is mostly a habit. In the sanatoria for tuberculosis, very little coughing is heard, because the patients are taught that most of their coughing is unnecessary, that it is simply a habit, and that it can be suppressed. In the same way, those persons who, on account of some condition, do collect phlegm in the throat and so desire to spit, can greatly lessen the frequency of the act, and when they must spit, can make use of their handkerchiefs.

Public opinion has a great deal to do with habits. We do not eat with our knives, because this custom is not congenial to reasonable.

done—it is contrary to public opinion. Public opinion, by frowning on the habitual spitter, can very quickly bring to an end this filthy habit which is a menace to all of us, and which plays a real part in the spread of tuberculosis.

THE PROBLEM OF
THE WHEAT GROWER

Western Canada, with its present agrarian population and with its present tilled area, can grow all the wheat for which export demand will exist so C. L. Sibley, writing in the current issue of MacLean's Magazine, declares. He offers no solution of the problem, other than the curtailment of wheat production on the prairie.
Premier Brownie, in a recent address, announced that a commission would be created to investigate the agricultural situation in Alberta. Both the magazine writer and Hon. Mr.
Brownie, in company with many others, have come to the conclusion that the three prairie provinces can produce, under favorable conditions, enough wheat to glut the world market. As all other farming countries are producing more wheat, the conclusion is reasonable.

A commission may examine Alberta's basic industry with a view to the improvement in this industry as a whole. And this is what it will find, as the premier knows very well—that the salvation of Alberta's agriculturalists is mixed farming, which will enable the farmer and his family to subsist to the greatest possible degree on the products of their land and their toil, that is to be self-supporting to the maximum extent. In other words farming for twelve months in the year as compared with the six months of wheat mining is indicated.

Fortunately Alberta is so situated that mixed farming is practicable and no dire tragedy will attach to a decrease in wheat growing if and when this becomes necessary. The natural inclination of the people of this province is to meet new conditions with renewed effort and fervour and the resources at their disposal assure a comfortable living

when these are utilized to the fullest.

A BIG JOB
(Walt Mason)

The men who rule the Russian state would do away with helpful creeds;
"Religion is an opiate," they say, "unfit for human needs." We'll drive the people from the pews, we'll run the preachers out of town, we'll use the church for selling booze, however startled nations frown. The name of Providence we hate, all worshippers
we'll persecute; where'er the pious congregate, our soldiers will arrive and shoot. If any man dares to pray, or sing an anthem or a hymn, we'll send the hangman on his way to hang him on a basewood limb." These men might stand along the shore and stop the rising of the tide, or hush the ocean's mighty roar, they are so full of power and pride. And they might hid the tempest cause, suppress the north winds when they rave, and order out their red police to make the elements behave. They've shown their equal to great things, since poor old Nicholas was slain, the last of a long line of kings who didn't know how to rule, how to reign. But when they hand down their decrees that all religious rites must go, that it's a crime to bend the knee before whatever shrines men know, they're taking on a bigger task than any despot ever struck, and some day they will pause to ask what madness made them run amuck. The peasants may be beaten down, but still will glow religious fires; if they can't worship in the town, they'll worship in their barns and byres. They may be robbed of all their goods, and driven from their wild shacks, but still they'll worship in the woods, and they'll pray and kneel and rack. The Russian rul-

Buy a Six of Course but be Sure it's a Super-Six

The Essex Challenger is a Super-Six. By its patented principle the ability of the 6-cylinder type is freed to the limit. It is responsible for a performance and smoothness that belong exclusively to the Essex Challenger. That is why we say—and more buyers every day are saying—"not just a Six, but a Super-Six."

ESSEX Challenger Gives Sparkling Performance

Essex performance comes from its completely balanced motor and power line. This balance of aluminum pistons, crankshaft, clutch and flywheel, coupled with the Lanchester Balancer gives more power and smoothness at all speeds.

Roadability and Safety

Longer wheelbase, larger tires and patented spring suspension make Essex the most roadable of cars. High speed with safety is possible because of the positive action of four-wheel brakes.

Interior appointments carry the same motif as fenders and lamps.

Upholstery is of finest quality. There is a graceful three-spoke steering wheel, and the instrument panel holds starter, electric fuel and oil level gauge as well as motometer.

This is the finest, best performing Essex value ever built. It holds scores of records established during continent-wide Challenger Week. See it and drive it. You will need no other proof that this is not just a six, but a Super-Six.

Noted Comedy-Success to Open Canadian Chautauqua

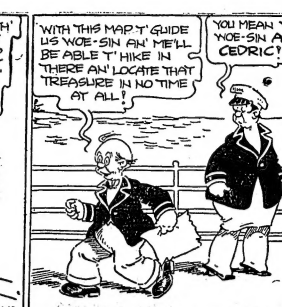

SCENE FROM "BROKEN DISHES"

"Broken Dishes," the popular Broadway comedy by Martin Flavin, which will be presented at the coming Canadian Chautauqua here, seems to strike a responsive chord in the heart of everyone. Pa Bumpstead, the central figure in the play, is one of the most lovable characters to reach the stage in a decade. For twenty years Pa has been as meek as a lamb in his own home, but events transpire which cause him to pluck up his courage and roar like a lion, to the intense surprise of the Bumpstead family.

"Broken Dishes" is a very human comedy, filled with laughter, romance and pathos. It will be presented here by the well-known Martin Erwin Players of Canada.

OUR OTTAWA LETTER

(By Wm. Irvine, M.P.)

Before this letter is published everyone will know of the passage of the Budget, the amendment of the Opposition, and the sub-amendment of the United Farmer and Labor Groups. The core of the Conservative amendment was that they accepted in principle the policy announced in the Budget, but that that policy was at variance with the policy of the Government when it obtained the franchise of the people, and consequently the Government should resign thus affording the Conservative party an opportunity to implement the policy which it had always advocated and three Conservatives and one Alberta Member who voted for the Budget, the Conservatives and Labour and Farmer Groups voted against the Government.

This whole business of amendments and sub-amendments and Budget votes is a piece of party humbug. This is perhaps an opportune time to indicate what must be the policy of independent groups in the future in respect to this phase of partisanship.

The motion upon which Parliament votes when it decides for or against the Budget is "that the Speaker do now leave the chair for the House to resolve itself into a Committee of Ways and Means." It has been and is the party practice to regard a vote on this motion as being for or against the Budget. Anyone with common sense can see that to vote for the House to go into Committee of Ways and Means would be a very unintelligent way of deciding the merits of a Budget containing many principles and many hundreds of alterations in the incidence of taxation.

It follows from this practice that an amendment to a Budget is a misnomer. An amendment proper means what it says, namely that part at least of the main motion is accepted, but that the modifications specially stated in the amendment would be more acceptable than the original motion. An amendment to the Budget, however, is not an amendment at all. It is taken as a counter-policy. Since the Government's policy, according to party practice, cannot be altered without defeating the Government, every so-called amendment to the Budget is a straight want-of-confidence vote. This being so, when a Farmer or Labour Group moves an amendment it is unwittingly playing the party game.

Another point to be considered is the Budget itself. Take the present one as an example. There were things in the present Budget that the Farmer members had requested the Government to do, such as the cancellation of the Order-in-Council extending the provisions of the Australian Treaty to New Zealand, the extension of the British Preference, and the exclusion of Co-operatives from paying the Income Tax. But there were other things in the Budget which while good or bad, we regarded as bad for which we could not conscientiously vote. We, however, have no choice but to vote for it all good and bad together or vote against it all, good and bad together.

Now this is not an intelligent procedure. It would require hundreds of votes to decide the contents of the Budget on a basis of common sense. The policy of the United Farmer representatives in the next Parliament must be to take a firm stand against the absurd party practice in respect to the Budget. We have been fighting party practice throughout our entire experience in Parliament, but we learn by experience from time to time the best or most effective method of attack.

At the beginning of the next Session of a new Parliament, our Group should make it very clear to both parties that from that time henceforth they will ignore the party practices as applied to the Budget by voting for the motion that the Speaker leave the chair and that the House resolve itself into a Committee of Ways and Means, but that such a vote shall not settle our attitude on the many and varied matters composing the Budget. And further that when the Budget is considered in the Committee of Ways and Means, we shall then state what we agree with, and move amendments and force votes on the matters with which we disagree. Some such course as this if followed by a Group persistently will ultimately bring Parliament to intelligent consideration of the Budget, and when that point has been gained, and when that point has been gained, Member of the House will thereafter be put in the absurd position of being compelled to vote for many things that he does not want in order to obtain one thing that he does want.

259 INSTITUTES RAISED $68,075

Calgary, Alta., May 22.—To strip war of all its romantic glamor and present it only as the tragedy it is, was urged by Mrs. J. N. Beaulieu, of Champion, in presenting the report of the League of Nations standing committee at the Wednesday afternoon session of the sixteenth annual convention of Alberta Women's Institutes. Elimination from school texts of all stories that glorify war, replacing military training by physical exercises, placing a copy of the world peace pact in every school room, and presenting a suitable peace program as Good Will and Armistice days were methods of training the young to a citizenship imbued with the spirit of peace, she said.

The steps being taken to overcome confusion arising from the present laws concerning the domicile and nationality of married women were outlined by Mrs. J. P. Ferguson, Trochu, in speaking on legislation. The terms of the recently-passed Sex Disqualification (Removal) Act in Alberta were explained.

Some 500 delegates and guests attended the banquet in the Hudson's Bay dining room Wednesday evening, when the Calgary branch entertained for the out-of-town delegates. Mrs. Nellie McClung was the speaker of the evening and warned members against cluttering their lives up with too great activity. Hon. George Hoadley brought greetings from the Government and Mayor Davidson from the city. Mrs. W. F. Cameron, federation president, was a distinguished guest.

Addresses by officials and reports of conferences filled the Wednesday morning session. Co-operation with the town planning commission, in beautifying cemeteries, streets, school grounds, and rural homes was urged by Mrs. H. J. Montgomery in her presidential address. She commended the more general study of world peace, and asked all branches to encourage handicrafts among new Canadians. Tree cutting is a serious question, she contended, and asked that branches use all their influence to regulate this and also to enforce advertising signboard regulations.

Report of the secretary-treasurer was given by Mrs. J. N. Beaulieu of Champion, telling of the routine work of the organization.

With 259 active institutes in the province, a total of $68,075 was raised, Mrs. J. Regan of Edmonton, business secretary-treasurer, reported. Some branches have raised more than $1,000. Two bonds, one of $2,000 and one of $1,000, have been purchased.

A total of 1800 letters were sent out. Nineteen branches have disbanded and 14 branches organized. The 27 constituency conference of the year had a total attendance of 2200.

The concrete achievements of branches were revealed in the district reports submitted by directors. The farthest north district was reported by Mrs. W. R. Baby clinics were also conducted.

Publicity work was reported by

GERMAN DAY CELEBRATION IN EDMONTON

On the third day of August the third annual celebration of the German Day will take place in Edmonton. All Germans, German-speaking people and friends of the Germans are hereby heartily invited to attend and will be expected to appear at the scene of festivities in the provincial capital.

The Germans, who have found a new domicile in Canada and Alberta are anxious to be worthy of this new home with heart and hand and all energies and to ultimately become true Canadians. But still we are conscious, writes the German newspaper

"Der Herold," Edmonton, that we owe something to the country from which we or our forefathers originated. Even here a day should be set aside to the memory of our native land, a day upon which we shall all together honor it and rejoice.

Most people today want to be invited to shop. In other words, they want to be told where the best values can be obtained. Readers of this paper should consult the announcements of advertisers from week to week. "Shop where you are invited to shop" is a slogan which is being adopted in many places.

Trans-Canada Starts Season

The twelfth consecutive season of the Trans-Canada Limited, Canadian Pacific flyer de luxe across the Dominion will commence when the train leaves the Windsor station, Montreal, at 6.45 p.m. daylight time, Saturday, May 17 next. Canada's Permanent head boards divide each of the eight sections between Montreal and Vancouver in 58 hours, fifteen minutes and return in 56 hours, fifteen minutes. In the period of its running between these points the Trans-Canada Limited will make 268 trips up to September 27.

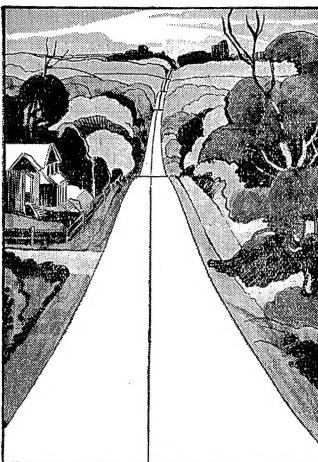

Eight million dollars has gone into the cost of equipment for the Trans-Canada and this service will absorb 12 trains crews and 24 engine crews.

The sleeping cars—all of steel—are finished in rich walnut, upholstered in a colorful flowered tapestry pattern, fitted with specially designed fixtures and carpeted and curtained in a deep shade of brown. Permanent head boards divide each of the eight sections from its neighbor giving increased privacy and two compartments and a drawing room, finished in similar style, take up the balance of the sleeper, apart from the unusually roomy dressing rooms for men and women. The dining cars are finished in a like manner and have forced ventilation whereby used air is sucked out of the car by powerful fans, ensuring a fresh atmosphere. Rear end equipment, as it is technically called, is featured by the unique solarium lounge car containing green tile bathrooms, spacious dressing rooms and a lounge compartment glazed with vitreous glass to admit the ultra-violet and most beneficial sun rays.

Lay-out shows Trans-Canada leaving the Windsor Street station, Montreal, on its long journey; Solarium car, Lounge car and Ladies' shower.

HARVEST HOME

Mr. H. Williams, Mr. Foster, Chas. and Elmer Maynard, are starting for the Peace River country next Saturday, going by motor.

Who has a gobbler that can beat this one of Mrs. L. Maynard? He is a mammoth brooder, and took a notion that he wanted to hatch some young ones, so crowded the hen turkey off her nest and took possession himself and has been sitting ever since. The only time he leaves the nest is when he gets hungry. So if anyone wants to buy a real bird nest fall, call on the above.

The recent snowstorm caused considerable annoyance to two of Winfield's families. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hallgren and daughters Gladys and Elsie were returning from Camrose. The roads were being improved, we know, and really they need it! This play sold water badly. These unfortunate people were forced to stay in their cars all night. Next morning they were obliged to walk through the snow about a mile to a farmhouse for breakfast. The car having been once more set right upon the road, they continued their journey, reaching Winfield late that night.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Stady and their daughter, Mrs. J. Gagnon, had another trying experience. Returning from Penderly in Mr. L. O. Gibbons' car, they were unable to reach the home. Having no chains, the car slipped into the ditch. They were compelled to walk a mile or more through the pouring rain, which preceded the snow, to the home of Mr. J. Larson, who gave them refuge.

The road from Battle Lake to Winfield is being widened, graded, and ditched, a long job necessary.

Mr. William Lait, with his father and small brother, from Saskatchewan, has returned to Winfield.

Mr. J. A. Stady, Jr., has also returned from a short time spent in Edmonton.

May 24th was celebrated by a dance in the new building owned by Mr. S. H. Carter. Ice cream and refreshments were dispensed by Mr. and Mrs. Carter.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl MacKenzie and baby son were seen in Winfield recently.

C.P.R. CROP REPORT

Winnipeg, May 26.—Apart from retarding growth and damage of any account to the wheat crop on the prairies is anticipated by frosts, varying from 1 to 13 degrees, which visited practically all parts, according to the Canadian Pacific Railway's Department of Agriculture, Western lines, today. Except in a few isolated cases wheat seeding is completed. Eighty per cent of oats and 60 to 65 per cent of barley, with considerable amounts of flax and rye, are green.

Particularly heavy in Northern Alberta, snowfalls in Northern portions of all three prairie provinces followed the warm weather of the first part of the week, snow varying from three to six inches extending from lower Peace River as far south as Red Deer.

Practically everywhere, according to the report, wheat fields continue to look promising, with an even stand and growth will expand rapidly with the advent of warm weather.

Various parts have benefited by additional moisture, particularly opportunity in the Edmonton area where it was especially needed. Summer fallowing and new breaking is proceeding. Blacktals district reports the appearance of cutworms already active.

Livestock conditions are favorable, with market receipts generally light.

TAR AND FEATHER OUTRAGE CHARGED AGAINST K.K.K.

Lacombe, May 28.—That the Klux Klan rode last night is the charge of Fred Doberstein, who was taken for a ride, tarred and feathered and received general rough usage at the hands of a party of masked men.

Mr. Doberstein, who is a local blacksmith, was called down to his shop by someone who wished a piece of welding done at about 11 o'clock Thursday night. Upon his arrival he was seized by two or three men and was taken by them in a sedan car and driven to a spot about ten miles out of Lacombe, where a coat of tar and feathers was administered, after he was beaten up and his hands and feet tied. He was left in this condition by the marauders, who got back into the car and hiked. Another car followed the car in which he was held, but in this only two men were seen, but they did not leave their positions.

Mr. Doberstein, after spending some minutes in working the ropes loose, made his way into Blackville, about two miles distant, where he telephoned the provincial police and to an auto livery in Lacombe to come out after him. Mr. Doberstein positively identified one of the masked men, and the police have unearthed corroborative evidence that he was in the vicinity of the blacksmith shop owned by Doberstein late last night.

Mr. Doberstein is at a loss to know why the attack was made upon him, but says one of the masked men said: "We are the Klux Klan, and you are living with a woman. If you return to Lacombe we will kill you, so best it keep on going."

COL. JAMIESON TO AGAIN OPPOSE MINISTER OF FINANCE

Edmonton, May 22.—Col. F. C. Jamieson, K.C., prominent Edmonton barrister, was nominated as Conservative candidate for West Edmonton federal riding at a convention here last night. He will oppose Hon. Charles Stewart, minister of the interior, who defeated him in the 1926 general elections by a majority of 1,400.

CALGARY POWER CO. TO ENTER TOFIELD

Tofield, May 23.—The burgesses of Tofield gave approval Thursday to the granting of a franchise to the Calgary Power Co. Ltd., to supply the town with electric light and power for a period of ten years.

Voting took place in the town hall and a large number of property owners turned out to give their assent to the franchise. There was not one dissentient vote cast.

French River, Home of Wiley "Muskie," Will Soon Echo Cries of Elated Anglers as They Battle Fresh Water Tiger

524

"Now is the time for all good fishermen to prepare for their summer trip is an appropriate slogan for disciples of Isaac Walton these balmy spring days. A successful fishing trip depends largely upon the careful selection of location, tackle and even associates, for many a party has been ruined by the last-minute introduction of a 'wet blanket' to an otherwise congenial collection of sportsmen.

One of the most interesting fishing streams in North America is French River, Ontario, 215 miles north of Toronto on the Canadian Pacific Railway. This lovely river is celebrated as the habitat of the fighting muskunge, one of the gamest fish known; huge Great Northern pike, pickerel, an abundance of small-mouth and largemouth black bass and other finny prizes. To accommodate sportsmen and their families, a fine bungalow camp—a collection of individual cabins centering around a main clubhouse—has been erected on a cliff overlooking the river. Here the fisherman and his family can "rough it in comfort," far from the cares and annoyances of a work-a-day world.

That big "muskie" are plentiful at French River is proven by the fact that one recent summer a monster muskie weighing 55 pounds was taken in the North Channel at the mouth of the Wolesey River. Also, not long ago a party of Ohio sportsmen caught, besides their daily limit of bass, pike and pickerel, no less in favor of the latter.

THE EDITOR'S SONG

If you have a tale to tell,
Boll it down!
Write it out and write it well,
Being careful how you spell;
Send the kernel, keep the shell;
Boll it down! Boll it down!
If you want the world to know,
Boll it down.
If you have good cause to crow,
If you'd tell how churches grow,
Whence you came or where you go,
Boll it down! Boll it down!
Then, when all the job is done,
Boll it down!
If you want to share our fun,
Know just how the paper's run,
Day by day from sun to sun,
Boll it down! Boll it down!
When there's not a word to spare
Boll it down! Boll it down!
Heave a sigh and lift a prayer,
Stamp your foot and tear your hair,
Then begin again with care—
Boll it down! Boll it down!
When, all done, you send it in,
We'll boll it down.
Where you end there we begin;
This is our besetting sin;
With a scowl or with a grin,
We'll boll it down! Boll it down!

JUST IN LOVE

The night was dark; it was raining hard. In the sweep of the lights a car showed up ahead, off the side of the road, leaning at a perilous angle. Just the situation for a good Samaritan.
Coming to a stop the conscientious motorist leaned out of the window.
"Are you in trouble, friend?" he asked solicitously.
"Nope," was the reply, "just in love."

ENGLISH "AS SHE IS SPOKE"

A Belgian student was relating his experiences in studying the English language. He said:

"When I discovered that when I was quick I was fast, if I spent too freely I was fast, and that not to eat was to fast, I was discouraged; but when I came across the sentence, 'The first one won one one dollar prize,' and that a blackberry is red when it is green, I gave up trying to learn English."

Having pleaded guilty to a charge of receiving 15,000 shares of stolen A.P. Com. stock, S. George Hapton was sentenced in supreme court on Thursday by Hon. Mr. Justice Walsh to serve five years in Prince Albert penitentiary. Harry Libin and Abe Hapton who pleaded guilty to the same charge, were each sentenced to one year in prison.—Calgary Herald.

RECORDS BROKEN
AT CAMROSE MEET

Camrose, Alta., May 26.—Two new junior provincial records for boys and an equal number for girls featured the first Northern Alberta Inter-scholastic Track and Field meet which took place here Saturday.

Frank Richards of Victoria High School, Edmonton, was the stand-out athlete of the competition, winning the championship cup for the best all-around performer with the remarkable record of six firsts and one second.

Beatrice Gillespie of Garneau High School, Edmonton, captured the girls' championship trophy with one first and three seconds. Victoria High had little trouble winning the shield for the school gaining the most points.

The first attempt to hold a championship meet for the high schools proved a huge success and it will undoubtedly be an annual event henceforth.

Richard, the Edmonton marvel, had a field day and his amazing display drew deserved plaudits from the large crowd. H. Alderice of Alliance equalled the provincial junior mark in the century dash with the excellent time of 10 1/5 seconds.

Richard broke the record for the running broad jump with 29' 8", bettering the old mark of 19' 8". In the running high jump H. Alderice came through with the wonderful leap of 5' 8", breaking the old mark of 5' 5 1/2".

In the girls' events, Beatrice Gillespie flashed to the tape in 11 4/5 seconds to shatter the junior mark for the province and also the senior. The senior record was 12 seconds flat and the junior 12 1/5. In the 220 yard dash Charlotte Dawes of Commercial High, Edmonton, covered the distance in an even 28 seconds, bettering Bertha Hansen's mark by three seconds.

The time also beat the senior mark by 3 1/2 seconds.

Besides the track and field events, Merneer defeated Camrose 10 to 6 in a seven-inning baseball game. There were also four girls' softball games between Camrose, Daysland, Bawit and Round Hill.

TWO FOOTBALL GAMES
PLAYED SATURDAY

Two exhibition games of soccer football were played in Wetaskiwin on Saturday Day, between the Edmonton Moose, a second division team, and the Victoria View, which represented Wetaskiwin.

The afternoon game was won by the local boys, the score being 3-0, while the evening game was taken by the visitors with a similar score. In the afternoon the visitors played some of their subs, which no doubt gave the Wetaskiwin boys the advantage, while in the evening, the visitors were at full strength. Both games were very interesting, and one of the goals scored by Wetaskiwin on a pass from Bert Wallis at right wing was a beauty. The Edmonton aggregation showed more polish and better training than the home boys, as they kicked the ball well, and passed it to advantage. The visitors stated that with a little more training, the Wetaskiwin boys can hold their own with any of the teams in the Edmonton second division.

RAIN STOPS FINAL
GAME IN TOURNAMENT

The Athletics journeyed to Mulhurst to take part in the baseball tournament at that place on the 24th, when four teams, Mulhurst, Millet, Thorberg and Wetaskiwin were out to test their skill on the diamond. Wetaskiwin drew first game with Mulhurst, winning 13-0. Thorberg drew with Millet and won easily. Wetaskiwin in the playoff with Thorberg, were stopped in the second inning by rain, Thorberg being twice at bat, made a score of one. Wetaskiwin at bat once, brought in four runs. Thrask did most of the twirling in both games, for Wetaskiwin.

Batteries:
First game—Mulhurst: Weaver, Morse; Wetaskiwin: Thrask, Watson.
Second game—Thorberg: Cooper, Horder; Wetaskiwin: Thrask, Watson.

The report of the Ponoka game on Sunday last was not available when making this report.

INDIANS TAKE GAME
FROM ATHLETICS 5-2

Wetaskiwin Athletics lost again to the Hobbema Indians on the Wetaskiwin grounds, Wednesday evening, May 21st, in a closely contested scrimmage. Rotvik for the Indians, only allowing five hits to the Athletics and walked 3. His team mates were right on accepting every chance coming their way either on the ground or in the air. Farewell on the mound again for the Athletics pitched a splendid game and had it not been for the loose playing both in the infield as well as in the out, a different score would have been the result. It was in the 6th inning when Pee Wee at short made his first error of the season, allowing Childs to cross the plate for Hobbema's first score. The lucky 7th for the visitors, gave them three safe swats and three runs, chalking up another tally in the ninth gave them a lead of three runs which the Athletics were not able to reduce in the last of the frame. A pretty feature of the game was in the 4th attemp, where Farewell got "a hole in one," throwing three balls for three men out.

GOLFERS IN HEAVEN
(By Edgar E. Guest)

Now when a golfer dies and waits Outside St. Peter's pearly gates; Before his spirit they admit, The saint should question him a bit. For Heaven will be a place of sin If certain golfing types get in. They need not ask what scores he made When on this good old earth he played, For dubs sometimes have finer souls Than sharks who birdie five-par holes. Though skill wins cups, too oft we find Skill has no time for being kind. "A golfer, eh? Did you replace The turf and smooth the bunker's face? Did you pass faster players thro' Or make them stand and wait for you? How with the caddy you employed Think you your company he enjoyed? Were you a friend to golf or foe? Care to the course did you bestow? Love for the game did you display, Or did you go your selfish way? And spelt for all who came behind The pleasure they'd a right to find? Were you a bickering on the tee? Loved you so much the victory That rules and friendship mattered not? If so go down where it is hot. These pearly gates you can't pass through. The angels would not stand for you."

My wife, Mrs. Audrey Laura Johns, having left my bed and board, I hereby give notice that I will not be responsible for any debts incurred by her.

for the Tiniest

—SHEER ORGANDIES in PASTEL TINTS

Like picking tiny blossoms from a sunny garden to select a little hat or bonnet from this grouping. And baby faces are more flower-like than ever when framed in the crisp sheer frills of the organdy.

Little poke bonnets shape their tiny crowns with row upon row of fine tucking—wee bonnets of petaly rows of picot edge ruffles, rosettes of organdy silk on tiny brims.

O.D.E. PRESENT SCHOOL

Ponoka, May 27.—An interesting event took place in the assembly hall of the new Ponoka school on Friday afternoon, when the Fort Ouellet chapter of the I. O. D. E. presented prizes to the two pupils having the highest average in British and Canadian history throughout the year. Jean Holbrook of the High school received a silver medal and $10 in cash, and in the public school—Norman Holbrook was the winner of a silver medal and $5.

JUNIOR COLLEGE
DESTROYED BY FIRE

Lacombe, May 28.—Fire which broke out in the Canadian junior college here at 2 a.m. Wednesday destroyed the main building and boys' dormitory. The loss is estimated at $100,000.

Five boys, who with some 300 others escaped in their night clothes, received burns and were taken to the Lacombe hospital.

The cause of the fire is still unknown. Shortly before the outbreak the night watchman made his rounds and reports that he found everything in proper order.

A loud explosion on the first floor, followed by fire, gave the first warning that the buildings were in danger. While the outbreak was in the main building, a spark was carried by the high wind to the boys' dormitory and within a short time it also was doomed.

When the alarm was sounded students rushed to escape from the burning building. Many went down a rope and, though cutting their hands, leaped ten feet to the ground and reached safety. Some of the lads climbed hand over hand along the eaves of the building and reached the fire escape.

There was an intense heat from the burning five-story buildings which prevented the firemen from being able to fight the conflagration at its worst spot.

The college is the only Adventist institution of the kind in western Canada. There were three buildings on the site, the other being the girls' dormitory, which was saved.

Winnipeg, May 23.—Manitoba fuel consumers expect to cut off $50,000, 000 to $75,000,000 of their fuel bill in the United States by intensifying purchases of Alberta soft coals and Welsh hard coal and coke, in the program of developing "trade with those who trade with us."

A herd of ordinary grade cows in Alberta will produce about 150 pounds of butterfat in a year. Most of this comes in the summer and will not bring much more than $50.00 from the creamery. Through the use of a high quality sire a herd can be developed that will make 400 pounds of fat per cow. This will come all year round and will return the farmer $120.00 from the creamery.—The Cream Producer.

Cop: Pull over, baby, you're pinched for speeding.
She: Don't be absurd, I can go as fast as I like.
Cop: Oh, yeah?
She: Yeah! The man I bought it from told me that after the first thousand miles, the sky's the limit on speed.

When an automobile, stationary upon an highway, is struck by another automobile, which is in motion, the owner of the stationary car is not bound to furnish, in his statement of claim, particulars of the negligence on the part of the owner of the other car to see that their names are mentioned for damages. This was the ruling of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of Alberta.

The Times asks its readers to make the local news columns their own, to the extent of contributing social and personal items which are of interest. If you have friends visiting you, there is no nicer compliment you can pay your guests than to take the trouble to see that their names are mentioned in your local newspaper. The Forgotten Day

Hilda Wayne had forgotten all good for a decade yet. She bit her lip until she saw the figure 9 staring at her from the calendar. Her birthday! She smiled grimly. As far as she knew, there wasn't a person in the world who remembered that today she was 50 years old. Fifty years old! She ought to be to thousands of Farmers

SINCE announcing publication of its free book "Weed Control", Imperial Oil Limited has received many thousands of requests for it from farmers of every province.

This book is now being distributed. If you desire a copy write for it immediately.

"Weed Control" was prepared with the idea of meeting two urgent national needs. First—to impress on Canadians the extreme gravity of the weed situation. Second—to assist farmers in their fight against weeds by supplying them with the best and latest information relating to weed extermination.

Every phase of this acute problem is dealt with in "Weed Control". The Honorable Duncan Marshall, former Minister of Agriculture for Alberta, is its editor, and practical farmers, experimental farms, agricultural colleges, and weed authorities from all parts of Canada contribute to its pages.

By adopting the suggestions contained in this free volume thousands of farmers will be better equipped to fight weeds and eventually eradicate them. Every chapter is full of interesting facts, written in plain, simple English.

"Weed Control" is a companion volume to "Field and Farm Yard" which was distributed last year by Imperial Oil to more than 65,000 farmers.

many present that I could hardly count them. It was a beautiful birthday."

"Tae no doubt of it," Hilda said, heartily. But she looked long into her teacup. The brew tasted bitter, somehow.

From her side of the table Alice Fancher gazed long and thoughtfully at the older woman.

All afternoon Hilda had a curious feeling, almost of being an attachment to the machine she operated. At closing time she decided to avoid Alice Fancher. She couldn't stand any more of that joyous home talk. It created too great a need in her own heart.

As she came out of the building in the teeth of an icy gale she heard a young voice calling her name. "Miss Wayne! Miss Wayne!" She looked up and down. Then she saw right at the curb before her a shabby little closed car with Alice's face at the window. The car was driven by a good-looking young man who opened the door.

"Come, get in here!" Alice cried. "This is my brother Edgar. You are going home with us to dinner. I telephoned mother and she sent you a special invitation. We're going to have—"

"Now, Allie! You promised you wouldn't tell her that," Edgar said reproachfully.

The open door of the sedan looked very inviting. Alice's face, Edgar's, had real welcome in them. She had on her thin coat and the gale cut like a knife. Hilda got into the car. "What made you think of doing this?" she asked as Edgar drove skillfully through the boiling current of the afternoon traffic.

"I like you," Alice answered simply. "You know how liking comes—something in your face, your voice, your manner gets one all of a sudden. I hope you'll like me. There's no reason why a girl shouldn't make a friend of a superior woman person, is there?"

There was welcome and to spare in the small house on the quiet street. Mother was another Alice grown older, dad was the proud happy head of his beloved family, there were a pair of girls and a boy younger than Edgar and Alice.

After dinner everybody danced to lively tunes from the radio. Hilda thought she had forgotten how to dance, but she picked up the new steps like a girl as Edgar and Dad swung her round. She found herself growing light-hearted, light-footed and supple again. Everybody bumped into everybody else, for space was limited, but it only added to the fun.

It was 10 o'clock before the shabby sedan left Hilda at her own door. She ran up to her room. She was tired through and through, but in a lot of new spots, and her mind was rested. She hummed a snatch of fox-trot as she switched on the light. Let her bogies pounce upon her if she dared! She'd drive them to their corners. She wasn't afraid of bogies any more.

Upon the floor where it had been pushed in under the door lay an envelope. She caught it up, tore it open. Within was a birthday card, blue with a heavenly little house smothered in pink roses under a golden sky. The verse was homely and sweet. And scrawled underneath were these words, "Best wishes from Tom."

Tom was the man that married her worst enemy. Funny that he had remembered her birthday all these years, or even remembered her for that matter. Dear old Tom! She stood looking at the card, picturing Tom, fat, bald, wheezy by now as his father had been, picturing herself as she had romped through that last fox-trot. Maybe she was 50 years old, but she was young in spirit. And the spirit only counted. Tomorrow she could face her future with a dauntless heart. Meanwhile, she expected to sleep like a baby.

TRY THIS—ON A FRIEND

Mrs. Herman H. Williams, an aparist of Mt. Victory, Ohio, stood like a statue with three swarms of bees weighing about 50 pounds bearing down on her recently, then carried them to a hive without being stung.

Mrs. Williams was summoned to settle a swarm of bees that had gathered on the branch of a briar bush. When they had swarmed she cut off the briar and started toward a hive. Another swarm settled down on her left arm. Fearing to move lest the bees sting her to death, she remained motionless while the insects settled. She started for the hive a second time and a third swarm settled on her neck and shoulders. Again she remained motionless for a quarter of an hour until the bees became quiet. Then she took them to the hive and, aided by a "smoker," put the bees safely away.

NEWSPAPER LAWS

Excerpts from Newspaper Law, printed for the benefit of any reader who may have mistaken ideas regarding same:

1. A postmaster is required to give notice by letter (returning the paper does not answer the law) if the subscriber does not take the paper out of the post office and state the reason for its not being taken. Any neglect to do so makes the postmaster responsible to the publisher for payment.
2. If any person orders his paper discontinued he must pay all arrears or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made and collect the whole amount whether the paper is taken from the office or not. There can be no legal discontinuance until payment is made.
3. Any person who takes a paper from the post office, whether directed to his name or another, or whether he subscribes or not, is responsible for payment.
4. If a subscriber orders his paper stopped at a certain time and the publisher continues to send it, the subscriber is bound to pay for it if he takes it out of the post office. This follows the principle that a man must pay for what he uses.

(G.S.)

Twenty-two days will be occupied by the annual tour across Canada to be conducted by Dean Stuart Laird, of Vancouver College, when his party leaves the Windsor Street Station, Montreal, by special train over Canadian Pacific lines on Sunday, July 20. This year will be the seventh trip conducted by Dean Laird and, as in past years, will include automobile drives over the famous Banff-Windermere highway and from Field, via the Yoho Valley to Lake Louise, as well as steamship trips across the Kootenay Lake to Nelson, from Vancouver to Victoria, and on the Great Lakes steamships from Port William to Port McNicoll.

Spring seeding in the west is proceeding at a rapid pace, according to report at the end of April from the agricultural department of the Canadian Pacific Railway at Winnipeg. Taking the three prairie provinces as a whole it was then estimated that 45 per cent. of wheat seeding is completed, with some districts in southern Alberta reporting between 50 and 55 per cent. Heavy showers have somewhat retarded progress in north-western Saskatchewan.

Twelve representatives of the New Zealand press are at present travelling through Canada via Canadian Pacific on their way to the fourth Imperial Press Conference to be held in London, Eng., next June. Marquis wheat still constitutes more than one-half of the western grain crop. This is shown by the test samples taken from 48 cargoes of Canadian wheat exported to England in 1928-29 and reported by the Dominion Department of Agriculture. The tests were made at the Dominion Experimental Farm at Brandon from samples collected by the Canadian Co-operative Wheat Producers, at export ports.

The Newly-weds had bought a chicken, and as Newly-wed was an amateur at carving, his wife insisted on his learning how to carve from the cookery book, so that he should not display his ignorance before their guests.

"Why don't you carve it, dear?" asked his wife anxiously. "You know exactly how to do it."

"Of course I do, love," said Newly-wed, "but I can't find any of the dotted lines."

LOCAL ODDFELLOWS ENTERTAIN VISITORS

On Wednesday evening, May 21st, a very enjoyable time was spent by all those present when the Millet I. O. O. F. Lodge No. 145 entertained their friends and the visiting Sisters and Brothers from Wetaskiwin.

The evening started out by having a few sections on the new Victor combination radio and phonograph, which was kindly loaned by Mr. P. Hamilton of the Cooke Drug Co. In the meantime the guests waited for supper to be served. About one hundred people sat down and satisfied their appetites with a delicious lunch and finished off by eating ice cream and candies.

After lunch, Bro. Fred Thompson, acting as chairman, called upon the following: Mr. P. Stuart, who responded with a solo very nicely; Sister Cooke, from Wetaskiwin, who gave a very interesting speech on the work of the Rebekahs; Mrs. P. Aikens, who rendered a solo very beautifully; Sister Chaffee, of Wetaskiwin, who gave a speech on the prospect of starting a Rebekah Lodge in Millet; Miss Dixon gave a recitation, which was very much in sympathy with the baldheaded man; Sister Hanna from Wetaskiwin, who also spoke on the advantages of having a Rebekah Lodge in Millet; Mr. Easterbrook rendered a song, which was well appreciated. Bro. French, of Wetaskiwin, who referred to a few of the advantages of having a Rebekah Lodge in Millet, and explained how a lodge could be instituted; Miss I. Langer then rendered a piano solo very artistically.

The rest of the evening was taken up with dancing. Everybody joined in and enjoyed themselves immensely.

Castoria is a comfort when Baby is fretful. No sooner taken than the little one is at ease. If restless, a few drops soon bring contentment. No harm done, for Castoria is a baby remedy, meant for babies. Perfectly safe to give the youngest infant; you have the doctor's word for that. It is a vegetable product and you could use it every day. But it's in an emergency that Castoria means most. Some night when constipation must be relieved—or colic pains—or other suffering. Never be without it; some mothers keep an extra bottle, unopened, to make sure there will always be Castoria in the house. It is effective for older children, too; read the book that comes with it.

Ask Yourself—Is It?

When you ask for a certain line of goods, a line which you have seen advertised in newspapers—and you are told "Here is something just as good and cheaper," it is time to do some thinking. If there is more profit in selling goods not advertised and you are buying at a saving, there must be something wrong somewhere—and usually that is loss of quality—something left out that is THERE in the advertised commodity you originally asked for.

It is well to remember that a manufacturer invests his good dollars in advertising space because he knows his product is right. The fact that he advertises in newspapers so that "he who runs may read" is evidence that he knows his claims are right, and that he is ready to stand behind his merchandise and the stores that sell it.
